OMG, there are at least FIVE errors in what the La Plata County people did here. I'm going to have to CALL them. ☺

And I had to go down to the 4th floor to WALK them through getting rid of ONE space. Calgon, take me awaaayyyyy!! ☺

Hi Tim,

The La Plata County emergency website (<http://co.laplata.co.us/emergency>) refers to our New Website Launch and provides our website, but when clicked on – it doesn't work.

Here's the website:

<http://www2.epa.gov/goldkingmine>

They added the 2 back in. Oh well. ☺

But <http://www.epa.gov/goldkingmine> will auto-redirect, as well.

Hopefully in a minute or so, this will ALSO redirect:

We're also hoping to establish an actual PHONE NUMBER in Durango. What a concept, eh? ☺
We technically have the number (970-385-8700). I just don't know if it's approved to go on the website yet or not... That'll probably take another month to approve... ☺
